

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT & NETWORKING BREAKFAST

“working with young people and careers”

supported by

endorsed CPD activity

This is a quarterly opportunity for those that work in the careers field to acquire professional knowledge and skills and network to share techniques of what's successful when working with young people. There will be an interesting mix of real life scenarios, professional development and a chance for one on one networking.

Venue: Next Generation, War Memorial Drive.

Date: 3rd August, 7.30am – 9am

Cost: $45 inc GST per person
(Winter breakfast included)

SPEAKERS WILL INCLUDE FOR THE AUGUST 2010 BREAKFAST WILL INCLUDE:

Mr Peter Mylius-Clark: Acting CEO DFEEST, Planning Policy and Innovation. Discussing South Australian Governments Skills for All program which aims to put 100,000 new training places for young people.

Trudi Pavlovsky: Founder of the Dream Initiative. Illustrating her career story and how this has impacted her work with young people today

Deb Flanagan: Education Manager at Cemons Skills Centre and RPL mentor and coach discussing RPL for younger people.

From 9:30 - 10:30 Deb Flanagan will be holding a bonus e-learning workshop for those interested. places are limited, booking essential.

for more information please visit

<http://www.youthjet.com.au/networks/pdbreakfast.html>

OR

Call the YouthJET office - 8227 0933

